

EAT NO SWEETS AND BE SLENDER, SAYS FOOD WARDER

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—The ideal "food administration figure" has been defined in a statement issued by Jay Cooke, 84, local food administrator.

"Eat less candy this summer," says Mr. Cooke in his heart-to-heart talk with women. "The less sugar you eat, the more slender and graceful you will be. Besides, you are conserving food elements for our allies and fighting the Hun while you stay at home."

There are hundreds of thousands of children and young people, of both sexes in Philadelphia, who can display their patriotism only by acts of self-denial. I suggest to these young people that they display their patriotism by cutting down their allowance of candy, chocolate, sundae, bon-bons, and the various luxuries manufactured almost entirely from sugar."

The new sugar rulings, according to Mr. Cooke, have been designed solely to give the housewife and the canner the opportunity to put up a large quantity of fruits this summer.

FAVOR RETENTION IN D. C. OF HALF-AND-HALF PLAN

Resolutions urging Congress to re-instate in the District appropriation bill the half-and-half provision for the operation of the District government and the establishment of the two-plateau system for District firemen are on the way to that body today from the Mid-City Citizens' Association.

Strong endorsement of the stand taken by the Police Department against pistol toting in the Capital has also been given by the association in the adoption of resolutions calling upon Congress to pass the new bill introduced by Congressman Johnson, which imposes severe penalties for carrying guns or other deadly weapons.

These were the outstanding features of last night's meeting of the Mid-City Citizens' Association at 1009 Seventh street northwest.

The Home Savings Bank, Seventh street and Massachusetts avenue northwest, was admitted to membership.

WAY TO EGG KAISER SHOWN BY A WOMAN

Mrs. J. A. Angrove, Galt, Cal., sets a message with her garden seeds.

Mrs. Angrove has written the national war garden commission, explaining her bestegg planting. She plants certain seeds in boxes to give them an early start, and plants in an eggshell, buried in the soil.

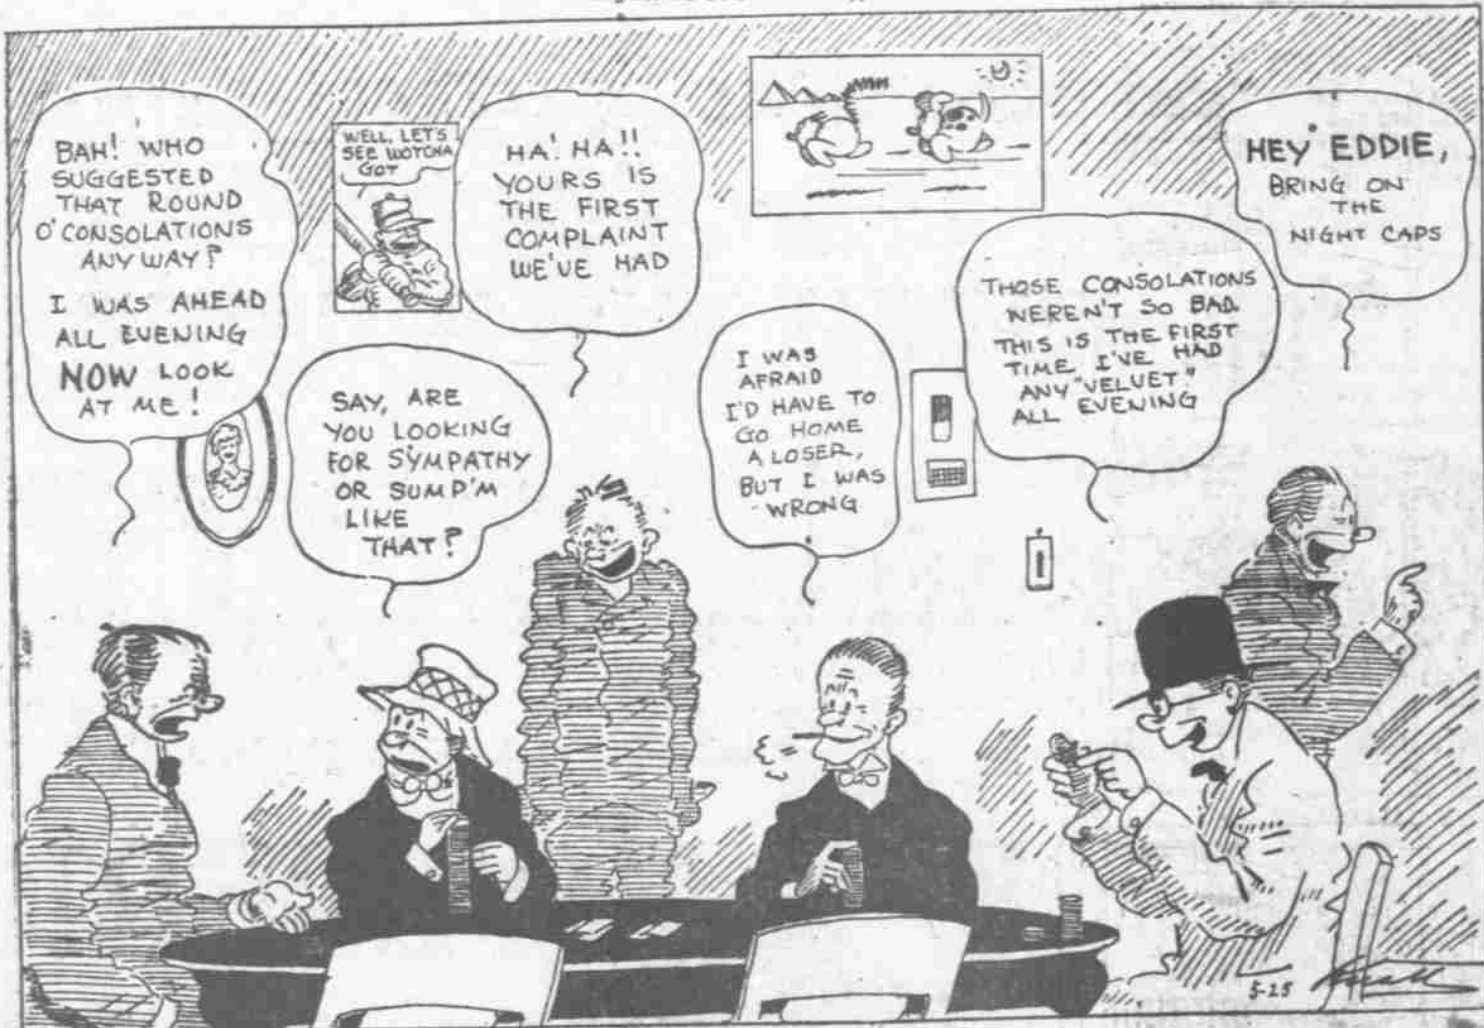

The eggshell, she says, furnishes valuable lime fertilizer to the tender sprouts.

GOVERNOR GENERAL OF CANADA TILLS OWN WAR GARDEN

Canada is playing its part in the great war with undaunted spirit. The willingness of the civilian population to sacrifice the things needed by the armies at the front has called every man and woman in the Dominion to the fields and shops, and the Duke of Devonshire, governor general of Canada, has taken to the soil like any of his loyal subjects.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield, who has just returned to the Capital

after a conference with the Canadian-American Fisheries Commission, today told of the way Canadians have thrown their fortunes into the war, led by the governor general.

The Secretary said that while being entertained by the duke, he was much concerned at the absence of his host and upon inquiry found him garbed in a laborer's uniform, resembling very closely the American overalls, and digging vigorously in his potato patch.

The duke explained that everyone in Canada was doing his bit, and that royalty was not an exception.

Colonel Roosevelt also urged whole-hearted unity that the war might be won and won early.

GODSOL DEFENSE LOSES ITS FIGHT TO BAR EVIDENCE

Overruled by the court in its motion for exclusion of much of the prosecution's evidence, the defense in the case of Frank J. Godsol has been granted adjournment in the hearing until next Monday morning.

At the conclusion of a two-day argument, Associate Justice William Hughes of the District Supreme Court yesterday afternoon denied the motion of Godsol's attorneys that much of the evidence introduced by the prosecution be ruled out, on the ground that it is hearsay. It was contended by the counsel for the Frenchman that fully 75 per cent of the Government's evidence was of this nature, and therefore inadmissible.

The admission of this evidence would burden Godsol with the necessity of bringing witnesses from Europe and South America to combat the prosecution's case, if he were to continue the case. However, following the court's decision, Godsol's attorneys held a conference, and came into court asking that the case be adjourned until Monday morning.

They stated that they had not yet decided whether to bring in evidence and testimony to oppose the prosecution's case, or whether they would merely be satisfied to argue on the sufficiency of the case presented by the Government. The motion was granted.

GERMAN CENTRIST LEADER DECLARES U-BOATS FAILURE

Matthias Erbsberger, leader of the Catholic-Centrist party in Germany, has declared that the submarine war is a failure. In a long article printed in Germania May 23 and called here yesterday, he says that a peace by compromise and undertaking is more vitally necessary to Germany today than it ever was.

Attacks Militarists.

In the same article he bitterly attacks the militarists and the politicians of the Koelnische Volkszeitung school.

Erbsberger declares that he stands by all the declarations for a moderate peace he has ever made in the Reichstag and in the committee. He says that events have borne out his prediction of 1914, that ruthless submarine warfare's only result would be to bring the United States into the war.

Land vs. Blood.

"To believe that the present war has no other aim than the rectification of the frontier," he says, "is showing very little common sense and reflection, at a time when the range of our cannon covers all of the small and even the middle-sized states of the confederation and when aviation has taken such a fabulous development."

"I consider that the politicians of the Koelnische Volkszeitung are a plague on Germany, and shall take every occasion to fight them. No foreign land, no amount of money taken from the enemy, are big enough to counterbalance the blood shed by Germany."
